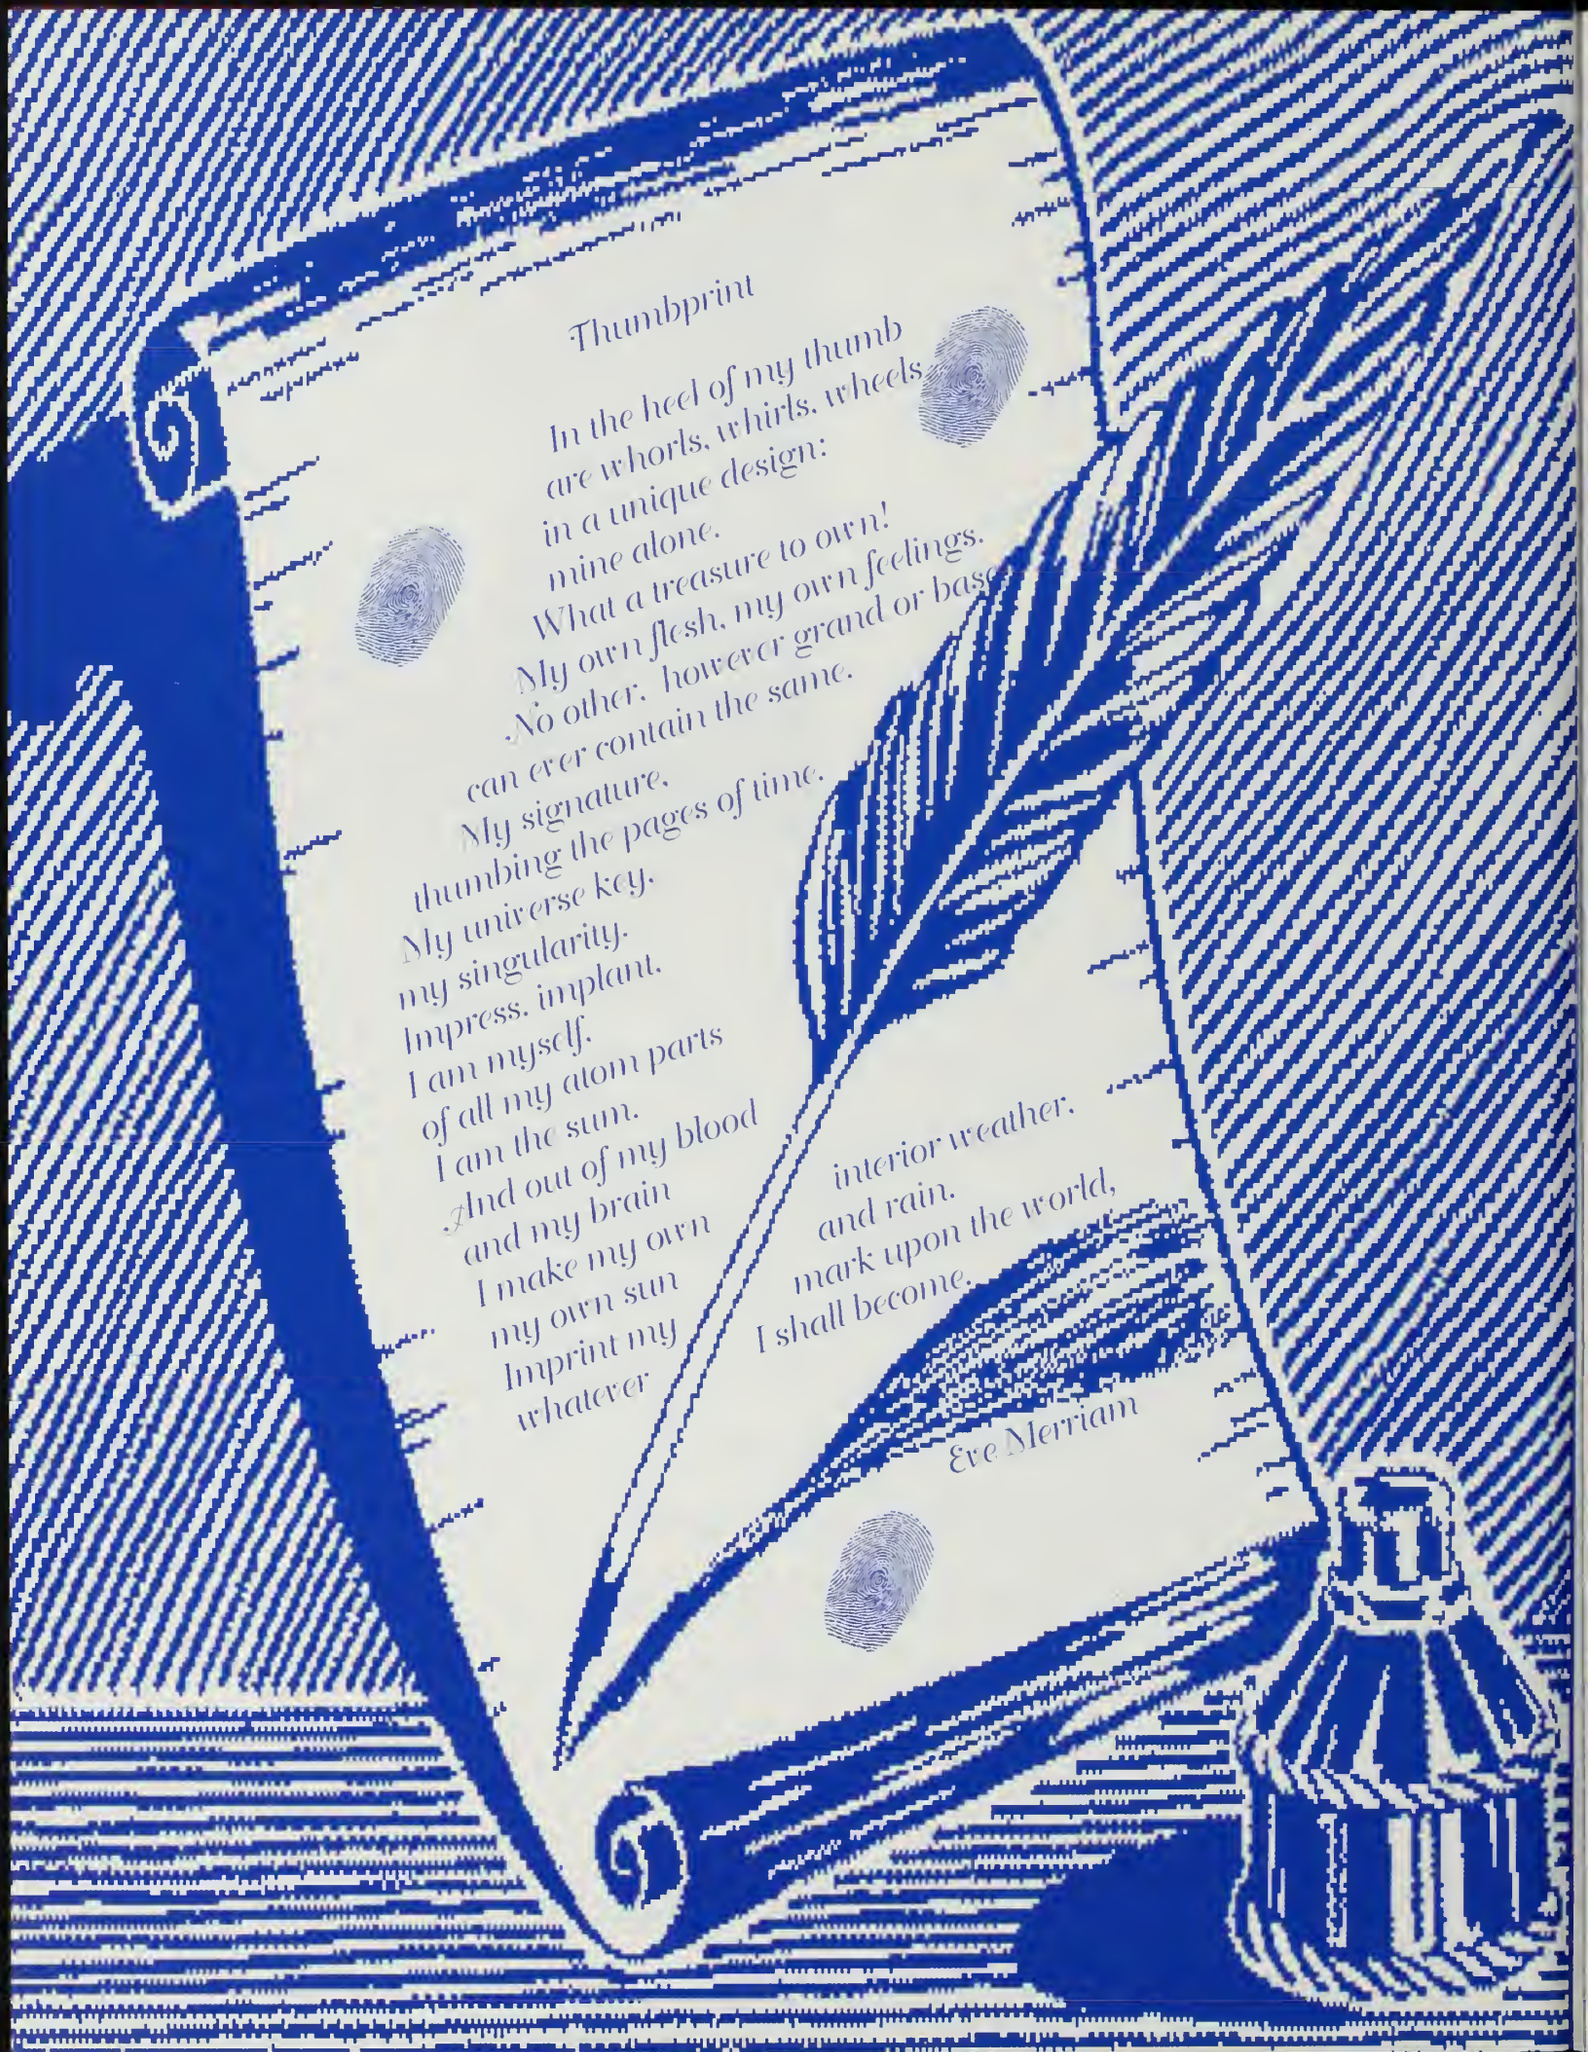
"THE FORMULA FOR SUCCESS IS SIMPLY HARD WORK - DON'T WASTE A MINUTE OF YOUR TIME."

This year we said goodbye to a principal who truly made his mark. Mr. Richard Steele has been involved with the Weymouth Public Schools since 1968. He said that he decided to become a teacher for the same reason most other teachers do; he wanted to work with kids and he was influenced by a teacher of his own. Mr. Steele was principal of East Junior and Weymouth South High before becoming principal of Weymouth High School/Vocational Technical High School. When asked why he decided to become a principal, he replied, " I was at the right place at the right time." He says that he never left the town because working with the teachers, the parents, and most of all, the students was very rewarding.

Goodbye, Mr. Steele. You will be greatly missed.



Thumbprint
In the heel of my thumb are whorls, whirls, wheels
in a unique design:
mine alone.
What a treasure to own!
My own flesh, my own feelings.
No other, however grand or base,
can ever contain the same.
My signature,
thumbing the pages of time.
My universe key.
my singularity.
Impress, implant.
I am myself.
of all my atom parts
I am the sum.
And out of my blood
and my brain
I make my own
my own sun
Imprint my whatever
interior weather,
and rain,
mark upon the world,
I shall become.

SENIOR PORTRAITS

To the Class of '98,

Senior year has been a year that I'll never forget. As a class, we have been through a lot together. I'm glad that we stuck it out and made it through the tough times. I cannot believe that we have made it this far, considering all the years of eating school lunches! I know that next year when we are all at different schools or jobs, we will be proud to say that we were a part of the Weymouth High School Class of '98. We are an amazing group. I am extremely proud to be able to say that I led this group through our high school career. I wish everyone the best of luck in reaching their goals and achieving their dreams.

Sincerely,
Your President,
Paul Casey

After the winds have carried us
Across the oceans and down the road,
We will stare into the past
Across those oceans and down these roads,
Trying to retrieve a location in time
That disappeared in all but retrospection.
If life is a journey,
Then we now stand at the crossroads
With a highway behind us
On which we cannot turn around.
So do not cross the ravaging Lethe,
And do not keep your sights ever forward,
But gaze and point out
The mountains you have crossed,
The cities you have built,
The people on the roadside,
And a time long since gone.

The Weymouth High School Marching Band and Color Guard certainly had a great season this year! All members gave lots of effort and dedication to their performances. They received high marks in events such as: the Barnstable Exhibition, the Abington Band Jamboree, the Wakefield MICA Competition, the Quincy Christmas Parade, and UMASS Band Day. Drum Major Michelle Steven and Assistant Drum Major Nicholas Monaco displayed their leadership abilities throughout the season, enabling them to win "Best Drum Major" awards in Division II at the Quincy Parade. Mrs. Paula Sanella, the band instructor, led the students all the way with her diligent but kind guidance. Maureen Kiley, Weymouth High's Color Guard instructor, equally gave her time to help improve the band's visual appeal. Members of the Marching Band and Color Guard thoroughly enjoyed themselves this year.

The success of the team can be traced to several factors including outstanding senior leadership which manifested itself in this group of young men playing, not as a group of talented individuals, but as a unified, focused team that would not be denied in its quest to establish Weymouth High School as a force in the Bay State League. The thrilling come-from-behind wins over Framingham and Newton North and the streak of eight consecutive victories, during which the Wildcats outscored their opponents by an average score of 28 to 9, highlighted the season.

Winter Track Girls'

This year's girls' indoor track team was led by senior captains Erika Pearson, Corinne Duffy, Rachel DiBona and Natalya Lavallee. The team did not enjoy a winning record, but the members always gave a quality effort and in many cases, the meet's outcome was not decided until the final event. Winter Track Boys'

The indoor track team completed a successful but deceptive season. A 5-3 record did not give full credit to an outstanding season, highlighted by four school records. Ably led by co-captains Mike Waugh, Jo-Jo Comperchio, and Greg Zopatti, the team easily defeated Wellesley, Framingham, Needham, Braintree, and Natick, while suffering close losses to Newton North, Brookline, and Milton. Greg Zopatti set a school record in the 600 meters, Mike Waugh in the high hurdles, and Brian Cronin, in the 1000 meters. Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball team finished the season with a 6-13 record. In their first year in the tough Bay State League, the girls gave it their all. In many an overtime and with many injuries, the girls still came out looking good. Much fun was had, and many laughs were shared among the team members. The two senior co-captains, Yvonne Howard and Katie Daley, will be greatly missed.

The boys' basketball team fought hard in their first Bay State League season. The team lost captain and All-League player John Stanford in the second game. Team spirit remained high and the team gave 100% effort despite a number of hardships. Seniors Nathan Farrar, Joe Guertin, Matt Selines, Matt Scott, and Tim Karalexis contributed to this year's team. Gymnastics

This year in gymnastics we were able to capture the league title and show the true definition of a team. Because we had such depth, it was easier for us to go undefeated in the Bay State League. Although all of us are very talented, our coach Kara Carney contributed greatly to our success. She taught us how to be team players. Even other teams could see how well we worked together.

Boys' Varsity Soccer State Champions

This year the Weymouth High School Boys' Soccer Team continued its domination of Division 1 soccer in the '90s.

This year's tournament started with two games under the lights of Legion Field. The first was a nail-biter in which the boys squeaked past Falmouth. Dennis Yarmouth was the next challenger to come to town and go home with a loss.

Going into the South Sectional Final, Weymouth was the underdog. Cohasset was the site of battle, as the boys took on the highly respected Marshfield team. With a 2-2 tie at the end of regulation, the tired players were able to dig deep within themselves to pull out a 3-2 overtime win.

With Cohasset feeling like a home away from home, Weymouth then met high-powered St. John's Prep, the next challenge standing in the way of a repeat of their 1996 State Championship. From the opening kickoff, Weymouth's hopes seemed shattered, but both teams struggled to put the ball in the net. Once the 1-1 tie was broken, Weymouth scored three second-half goals and cruised to a 4-1 win. For the second year in a row, the boys were E-Mass champs.

After a week's wait due to weather, the Wildcats were able to take their shot at a repeat State Championship against Ludlow at Boston University's Nickerson Field. The teams were very evenly matched, and it showed in a disappointing 2-2 tie. Although the trophy was shared, the team believes that since they were the defending champs and they hadn't been beaten, the championship was all theirs.

In showing their ability to prevail in tough games, the team displayed the work ethic that has made Weymouth, in coach Shoff's words, "The team of the 90s."

People underestimate the amount of time and effort it takes to produce yearbook. Each year is challenging with many new staff members, but many of last year's staff members stepped up to become sub-editors. We worked almost every day, checking and rechecking everything so that the 1998 yearbook would be the best yet.

The rest of the senior committee knows how we want our senior year to go and that's how it will end up.

The Children

We are the children of the Eighties. We are not the first "lost generation," nor today's lost generation; in fact we think we know just where we stand- or are discovering it as we go.

We are the ones who played with Lego Building Blocks when they were just building blocks and gave Malibu Barbie crewcuts with safety scissors that never really cut. We collected Garbage Pail Kids and Cabbage Patch Kids and My Little Ponies and Hot Wheels and He-Man action figures and thought She-Ra looked just a bit like I would when I was a woman. Big Wheels and bicycles with streamers were the way to go, and sidewalk chalk was all you needed to build a city.

Imagination was the key. It made the Ewok treehouse big enough for you to be Luke, and the kitchen table and an old sheet dark enough to be a tent in the forest. Your world was the backyard and it was all you needed. With your pink portable tape player, Debbie Gibson sang backup to you, and everyone wanted a skirt like the Material Girl and a glove like Michael Jackson's.

Today, we are the ones who sing along with Bruce Springstein and The Bangles perfectly and have no idea why. We recite lines with the Ghostbusters and still look to The Goonies for a great adventure. We flip through TV stations and stop at The A Team and Knight Rider and Fame, and laugh with The Cosby Show and Family Ties of the Eighties

and Punky Brewster and "what you talkin' 'bout Willis?" We hold strong affections for The Muppets and The Gummy Bears and ask why did they take The Smurfs off the air? After-school specials were only about cigarettes and stepfamilies, the Polka Dot Door was nothing like Barney, and aren't the Power Rangers just Voltron reincarnated?

We are the ones who still read Nancy Drew and the Hardy Boys, the Bobbsey Twins, Beverly Cleary and Judy Blume, Richard Scary and the Electric Company. Friendship pins went on shoes—preferably hightop Velcro Reeboks, and pegged jeans were in, as were unit belts and layered socks and jean jackets and jams and charm necklaces and side ponytails and just tails. Rave was a girl's best friend; braces with colored rubber bands made you cool. The back door was always open and Mom served only red Kool-Aid to the neighborhood kids--never New Coke.

Entertainment was cheap and lasted for hours. All you needed to be a princess was high heels and an apron; the Sit 'n' Spin always made you dizzy but never made you stop; Pogoballs were dangerous weapons and Chinese jump ropes never failed to trip someone. In your Underoos you were Wonder Woman or Spider Man or R2D2, and in your treehouse you were king.

Never forget: We are the children of the Eighties!

Coming up to the mark....
